

This week for alternative learning Mischa has learned to bake cook new dances on tic toc. She has built a tent and helped to look after her brother and sister she has been on walks through St Columb's Park with her sister. She spoke on the Mark Patterson show on Tuesday. She made us very proud speaking about isolation. She spoke very clear and knew what she was saying . We are super proud of Mischa this week

